

How to get to St Andrew's Church, Northey Avenue, Cheam, SM2 7HF

Various Scottish dancing groups use St Andrews for occasional Saturday evening dances which take place from 7:30 -10:30 PM. See calendar below for events in the next few months. For future events, see the Tartan Jigsaw calendar on the Croydon website: <http://www.rscdscroydon.org.uk/index.htm>

Dances at Northey Avenue In 2018 †

| | |
|--------------|--------------|
| Epsom | 9th June |
| Wallington * | 13th October |
| Surbiton * | 20th October |
| Bramley Hill | 3rd November |

† Nearly all dances at Northey Avenue are walked through once. Some very well-known dances may just be talked through.

* Bring-a-plate to share events

Viewed from Northey Avenue looking south, the Aitken Hall of St Andrew's church, which is used for dancing, is on the right. The car park and entrance are on the right of the hall. There is free parking on the road.

